

New Lodge of Royal Arch Masons

Dr. C.E. Belden of Phoenix, grand high priest of Royal Arch Masons, assisted by F.M. Zuck of Holbrook recently instituted a chapter of the Royal Arch in Winslow. This was an important event in the Masonic circles, and but few places in the territory have a lodge of the Royal Arch. It will be known as Temple Chapter U.D. and meet the first and third Saturday evenings each month at the Masonic Hall. All visting companions are cordially invited to be present at these meetings. The following are the gentlemen chosen as officers: F.M. Zuck, high priest; F. Thomas, king; C. A. Roy, scribe; J.W. Christal, captain of the host; J.C. Nance, principal sojourner; R.C. Roy, royal arch captain; J.G. Maxwell, master of the first veil; Allen Hunt, master of the second veil; A.E. Penney, master of the third veil; J.H. Morse, treasurer.

The Coconino Sun, August 15, 1909 page 2